Helen Keller to Lecture Here.

Miss Helen Keller, the deaf and blind girl, and her teacher, Miss Sullivan, will lecture Saturday evening, February 12, in the Masonic auditorium under the auspices of Stoneyard Jackson chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The story of Helen Keller and her teacher, Miss Sullivan, is one of the most marvelous educational stories of modern times. Miss Keller became blind and deaf at the age of nineteen months, and although she has not been able to use the senses of sight since then, she has, through the most patient and skillful teaching of Mrs. Macy, become a highly educated woman. She was graduated from Radcliffe college, the female department of Harvard, 1914, receiving the degree of B. A., cum laude, (with honor.) It would seem incredible that a person who practically could never see or hear should be able to take up higher educational studies with marked distinction and even, as has been the case, become the author of books. One of her books which she wrote in college "The Story of My Life" has been translated into fifteen languages.

Mrs. Macy in her lecture will describe the circumstances which led to her becoming the teacher of Miss Keller and will detail the method by which she instructed Miss Keller and thus opened the outside world to her, which seemed locked forever. All who have had anything to do with the training of children realize how almost superhuman must have been the task of teaching Miss Keller to speak for the first time.

Mrs. Macy will demonstrate her method of communicating with Miss Keller. These lectures will prove interesting to people who will thus have an opportunity very early to hear these world-renowned people. Tickets will be on sale February 10, 11 and 12 at Stone and Mercer's drug store.

Annus' Banquet and Ball.

The Members of Clarksburg Commandery Number Thirteen requests the presence of yourself and lady at their Double Birthday Party.

A most delightful and charming birthday party was given Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon, in honor of their daughter, Virginia Bell's third birthday and also for her little cousin, Harry Bradford Davis's fifth birthday.

At 3 o'clock each little guest was called for at their home and delivered to the home of their hostess, bringing with them dear little remembrances for both host and hostess.

Promptly at 4 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room, where a most beautiful table was laid in honor of the occasion, the color scheme of pink and white, prevailing throughout. The table had for its centerpiece a miniature "Maypole" and leading from this were streamers of pink ribbon that went to each place, which had little hand-painted "Sunbonnet Babies" for the place cards.

At each end of the table was a pink and white birthday cake, one cake having four candles for Virginia Bell's three years, and as for the old tradition the fourth candle to brighten her way through the coming year, and the other cake having six candles in honor of Harry Davis, the sixth candle being to brighten his way through his fifth year.

After playing several children's games the little guests were taken back to their homes, after being presented by their host and hostess a miniature "Captain Kewpie."

Those who were present were Misses Ronald Summers, Katherine and Pearl McCracken, Vera Garland, Thelma Painter, Pauline Robinson, Madeline Rutherford, Pauline Waters, Enid Gallant, Ruth Gallant, Mary and Ann Fultz; Masters: William McCracken, Edward Graham, Jr., James Matheny, Willis Triplett, Jr., Bernard and Edward Montgomery, Harry Fultz, Sam Harrison, Charles Davis, Earl and Harold Phillips and the honor guests, Virginia Bell Nixon and Harry Bradford Davis.

The exact nature of the contemplated fun is not known, but it is "leaked" out that there will be a "query box," which of itself is interesting because "any fool can ask questions." It is just recalled, too, that something was heard about music that beats the professionals. Of course there will be something for the "inner man," and it will be free. There will be a small charge at the door.

Working for Success.
SHINNISTON, Feb. 3.—The members of the Woman's Civic Club, of Shinniston, are working earnestly for the success of their club, an organization of which Shinniston can justly be proud.

The chief aim of the club is the beautifying and keeping in order the local cemeteries. In the beginning the cemetery lots were priced at such a low price that the ladies have never felt able to contribute a sum sufficient to keep the grounds in order, in fact they have been kept very poorly.

The ladies are meeting with unbounded success and have earned a small amount to begin their work, and feel sure that with the cooperation of the lot owners and lodges they can place a sexton in charge of the cemeteries and do a great deal toward beautifying and keeping them as they should be.

The members of the club especially appreciate their president, Mrs. Sarah C. Randall, wife of the late Honorable George F. Randall, whose undivided attention is given to the success of this club and to everything that is of an uplifting and elevating character in the community.

A program consisting of drills, music, recitations, etc., was rendered Saturday evening to a most appreciative audience and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the club.

This club was recently organized with the assistance of Mrs. B. L. Butcher and Mrs. J. M. Black, of the Woman's club of Fairmont.

Some of the most prominent women of Shinniston are members and the personnel bespeaks success.
